A receiving party may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. If the receiving party disclosed the information before being notified, it must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(i) Procedure when witness is confined in jail. If the witness is a prisoner, a party may move for an order to examine the witness in the jail or prison or to produce the witness before the court or officer for the purpose of being orally examined.

(j) Subpoena unnecessary. A person present in court or before a judicial officer may be required to testify in the same manner as if the person were in attendance upon a subpoena.

Advisory Committee Notes

~~To quash a subpoena, a party should file a motion for a protective order under Rule 26 and a non-party affected by the subpoena should file an objection under this rule. The non-party might be the person~~

~~subpoenaed or might be someone who has an interest in the testimony of the subpoenaed person or in the documents or other materials ordered to be produced. The process to request a protective order is governed by Rule 37(a), Statement of discovery issues.~~

The form subpoena formerly part of the Appendix of Forms described in Rule 81 has been replaced by forms approved by the Board of District Court Judges found on the court website at <http://www.utcourts.gov/resources/forms/subpoena/>. The website includes information and forms for domestic subpoenas and subpoenas from other states. Utah has adopted the Uniform Interstate Depositions and Discovery Act, and the act differentiates between the requirements for a subpoena issued by a state that also has adopted the uniform act and the requirements for a subpoena issued by a state that has not.
